
AUTHORS

Kim Fupz Aakeson (Denmark)

Kim Fupz Aakeson (born 1958) is a Danish author and a draughtsman. He has published a series of children's books, novels and short stories and has written scripts for some of the most successful Danish films. He started writing for the radio theatre in 1992 with the play THE POERFORMANCE. Kim Fupz Aakeson's dramatic works are being staged all over Europe.

Titles

PARTY

A witty and grotesque play about two mixed-up men in their twenties, who are planning a party. With full bottles of spirits, party snacks and the duo primped, preened and ready to go, they await the arrival of their friends. But nothing goes according to plan. A comedy with twists and turns which keeps the audience on its feet