
AUTHORS

FABIO MARRA

Author, director and actor. After several years writing and directing plays at various theatres in his home town of Naples Fabio moved to Paris in 2005 and started his own production company Carrozzone Teatro in 2007. His first production with the company was

Titles

TOGETHER

Sandra returns home after ten years to her mother and neurodivergent brother, she's getting married. Her return massively disrupts the tight union and steady routine of the mother-son duo and Sandra thinks her brother, who needs constant support, should be in a residential care home and that what her mother calls care is actually co-dependency.